

CATCH & RELEASE Caloosa winners honored

More than $30,000 in cash and prizes was awarded at The Nineteenth Annual Caloosa Catch & Release presented by Maverick and Yamaha June 5-8 at Pink Shell Beach Resort and Spa on Fort Myers Beach.

The Caloosa Catch & Release is the first leg in the Caloosa Tournament Series, which has a total purse of more than $125,000.

The primary beneficiary is The Florida Gulf Coast University Athletic Scholarship program.

PHOTO SPECIAL TO THE NEWS-PRESS

■ 1. The winners for the Nineteenth Annual Caloosa Catch and Release — Shane Dooley and Billy Glass — with Hooters girls Amanda Schleiden and Liz Swindell.

PHOTOS BY MOLLY BEAUDIN/NEWS-PRESS.COM

■ 2. Matt Haag and Steve Matthews with a 6.8 lb, 26.5 inch redbfish at the 2008 Caloosa Catch & Release tournament at Pink Shell on Fort Myers Beach. ■ 3. Corey, Kip, Jodie and Colten Klingensmith ■ 4. Justin Smalsh, Garrett Lerontz, Tyler Adams, and dog, Missy. ■ 5. Ron Riley and Bob Wasno.

AWARD FROM MENSA Counselor honored

In her three years at Cape Coral High School, career specialist Debbie Daniels has helped students land more than $3 million in scholarships.

The Southwest Florida chapter of Mensa, the high-IQ society, recently gave Daniels an award for encouraging so many students to enter its local scholarship contest.

PHOTOS SPECIAL TO THE NEWS-PRESS

■ Bill Bent of Mensa surprised Debbie Daniels, above, with an award for outstanding achievement.

CALENDAR GIRLS Special performance

Members of The Calendar Girls, an over 50 Dance Team, recently performed at the Special Operations Fundraiser in Fort Myers.

PHOTO SPECIAL TO THE NEWS-PRESS

Calendar Girls Pat Benner, Barb Peck, Margaret Roche, Lyn Carlsen, Michele Faulkner, Aileen Smith, Tina Pegler, Katherine Shortlidge, Linda Floyd, Deb Zemaitis, Marianne McSweeney.